PRESIDENT WRITES

Dear Fellows and Members,

Anorectal conditions leading to constipation and perineal lesions take a major role in the management of conditions pertaining to this region. There are different modalities of treatment available with varying outcome. These conditions need further in-depth studies, so that they could be prevented, thereby saving man hours and exorbitant cost involved in treatment; there is an abundant scope for further research in this feild. I draw the attention of our fellows and members to promote futher research in this area.

Wishing the very best for a healthy and prosperous new year.
