PRESIDENT WRITES

Dear Fellows, Members and Associates,

Our journal is making steady progress especially in the quality of the articles and readership. I am sure with the election of several new fellows and members, we shall make it even better in 2016. Strangely enough, we don't find any articles from postgraduate students. I am sure their guides and teachers will encourage them to contribute articles to our journal.

Let me wish all fellows, members and associate members a very happy, prosperous and healthy new year.
